

HE DREAMS OF MILLIONS.

A COLOMBIAN WHOSE SANITY IS QUESTIONED HERE.

Qualt Decree of a Colombian Court on His Condition.—W. H. Grace & Co., Decline to Let Him have the Money They Hold.
On the petition of William H. Grace, Justice Andrews of the Supreme Court has appointed a Commission consisting of John N. Judah, a lawyer, and Matthew Chalmers, a physician, to inquire into the sanity of José Vicente Mongolian, a merchant of Barranquilla, United States of Colombia. W. H. Grace & Co. have a balance to his credit of $8,433 which they desire to pay to him or to his alleged creditors, believing him to be insane.

Mongolian left his native place on Feb. 27 last for the steamer Anden, and arrived here about two weeks later. He came with only the clothing he wore, although he is said to be wealthy, and he had not paid his passage. He brought no money, and on his arrival went to collect his account with W. H. Grace & Co.

The affidavits of William E. L. Keys, a member of the firm, say that the partners became convinced of his mental condition and did not think it proper to advance him the money. They paid his living expenses and directed him to Dr. Edward L. Keys, who treated him. The physician declared that he was suffering from a spiritual affliction.

Mr. W. H. Grace & Co. were, as a member of the firm, was served with a third party order for his examination in an action brought by an Englishman, representing himself as an agent contract with Mongolian.

Mr. Grace averred that he was informed that the judgment of the court was to be upheld in the efforts of Mongolian to get his money. Subsequently the balance in the hands of the firm was attached in an amount of $1,841 by a Colombian court.

The firm does not give an opinion on the merits of the second claim.
